THE LAW SCHOOL

Because they stood among the highest ten per cent of the senior class, Sidney J. Stern, Jr., of Greensboro, and James Andrew Wellons, Jr., of Smithfield, have been elected to the North Carolina Chapter of the honorary law school society of the Order of the Coif.

For the best total contribution to THE NORTH CAROLINA LAW REVIEW during the year, James Melton Verner, of Asheville, has been awarded the George Watts Hill LAW REVIEW prize of fifty dollars.

Winfield Clary Holt, of Greensboro, has been appointed student editor-in-chief of THE NORTH CAROLINA LAW REVIEW for the year, 1937-1938. James M. Verner has been appointed associate editor, and Charles Marshall Ivey, Jr., of Concord, Book Review editor.

Faculty research assistants for the year 1937-1938 will include: Julian C. Franklin, of High Point; Winfield Clary Holt; and John T. Schiller, of Wilmington.
