BOOK NOTES

The Administration of Public Tort Liability in Los Angeles 1934-1938.

By Leon T. David and John F. Feldmeier. New York: Committee on Public Administration of the Social Science Research Council. 1939. Pp. viii, 67. $1.00.

This report is a realistic research in the field of municipal tort liability of especial value to the city attorney.

Cases and Materials on Creditors' Rights. Third Edition. By John

Hanna and James A. McLaughlin. Chicago: The Foundation Press, Inc. 1939. Pp. xxviii, 1144. $7.00.

The passage of the Chandler Act of 1938 was the principal reason for the revision of this book. There is no radical change in the plan; inclusion of new cases showing developments in the bankruptcy field constitutes the contribution of the new edition.

Labor's Right to Organize. By William M. Leiserson. Minneapolis:

The University of Minnesota Press. 1939. Pp. 5, 23. 25c.

The material in this pamphlet constituted a talk at a Student Labor Conference at the University of Minnesota. The author is now a member of the National Labor Relations Board.

Municipalities and the Law in Action. Edited by John A. McIntire and Charles S. Rhyne. Washington: National Institute of Municipal Law Officers. 1939. Pp. xiv, 199. $3.00.

Presentation of the proceedings of the National Institute of Municipal Law Officers at one of its meetings. This is the first of a series of reports on such activities and will be of practical value to those interested in municipal law.

Cases on Civil Procedure. Third Edition. By Roswell Magill and

James H. Chadbourn. Chicago: The Foundation Press, Inc. 1939. Pp. xxxiv, 866. $6.50.

This casebook has been revised to consider new cases hence new procedural developments. The new edition purports to indicate more clearly the boundary lines between common law and code cases.

Cases on Commercial and Investment Paper. By Roscoe Steffen.

Chicago: The Foundation Press, Inc. 1939. Pp. xxxviii, 965. $6.00.

A new casebook in the commercial paper field by one of the leading legal minds in the country.
