The contributions of the student editors in this issue have been written under the supervision of individual members of the law faculty. Publication of signed contributions from any source does not signify adoption of the views expressed either by the LAW REVIEW or its editors collectively.

The LAW REVIEW makes the following announcements:

The Hill Law Review Prize, established in 1927 by George Watts Hill of the Durham Bar, to be presented to the student editor who makes the best total contribution to the LAW REVIEW during the year, is awarded to E. M. Perkins.

William J. Adams, Jr., has been selected as Editor-in-Chief for next year.

As a result of the first-year competition, the following student editors were selected from the first-year class:

The editors of the LAW REVIEW desire to express their thanks to the Law School Association and to the First-Year Class for their generous gifts to the LAW REVIEW, which were of material assistance in the publication of this issue.
