12-1-1970

Books Recently Received

North Carolina Law Review

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarship.law.unc.edu/nclr

Recommended Citation

Available at: http://scholarship.law.unc.edu/nclr/vol49/iss1/13
BOOKS RECENTLY RECEIVED

Each portfolio in this series treats a narrowly drawn tax problem area and is oriented to practical use by the bar. The portfolios are kept current by revision and replacement. References to other pertinent research data, facsimiles of implementing documents, and forms are also included. Among the recently published numbers are:

- Farm and Ranch Losses—Recapture. By Martin B. Dickinson. 236.
- Preparation and Use of Schedule M. By James W. Ristau. 31-3rd.
- Industrial Development Bonds. By H. Lawrence Fox. 216.
- Installment Sales. By Joseph P. Giljum. 48-3rd.
- Moving Expenses. By Marcus Schoenfeld. 3-4th.

The author, an army veteran, describes the military system from the draftee's viewpoint. The basic theme is to analyze that system and outline the procedures and rights available to the draftee in dealing with it.

This second volume in the history of the accounting profession covers the years 1937-1969. These are the years during which the accounting profession rose to a position of responsibility and authority in the United States.

A study of the various methods proposed for increasing the legal services available to the poor and near-poor. Explores such topics as legal aid, group legal services, lawyer referral services and others. All aspects of the topic are considered, including the practical and professional restrictions presently existing.

A study of the present English practice which has vastly simplified the administration of estates and trusts; the book includes a comparison of the American vehicles for achieving the same results at greater expense and more slowly.

This is a casebook covering the areas of sales and secured transactions, with emphasis on the Uniform Commercial Code.