Each portfolio in this series treats a narrowly drawn tax problem area and is oriented to practical use by the bar. The portfolios are kept current by revision and replacement. References to other pertinent research data, facsimiles of implementing documents, and forms are also included. Among the recently published numbers are:

Foreign Tax Credit. By William J. Geen. 5-3rd.

Foreign Partners, Partnerships, Trusts, & Estates—General. By Michael Mulroney. 197-2nd.

A survey of some of the legal problems involved in residential and commercial uses along the water’s edge in relation to the substantive aspects of public policy.

This book attempts to aid the foreign investor in assessing the investment climate in Mexico through an examination of both the laws and the policies that affect the entry and operation of foreign enterprise there.

A leading expert on environmental law details a procedure for taking environmental controversies out of the hands of politicians who have abdicated their public responsibility and into the hands of the people. Professor Sax argues that it is necessary for citizens to reassert their right to determine the fate of their own environment and demonstrates how this can be done by carrying environmental disputes into the courtroom.
