BOOKS OR CLIENTS?

With regard to Federal Law does a lawyer

Start by building his Federal practice with United States Code Annotated as the foundation and thereby establish that he is equipped to answer Federal questions . . . . or does he Delay until the day he has somehow accumulated a number of Federal questions before getting the United States Code Annotated to find the answers?

We all know that the more a lawyer can show he is equipped to deal with problems, the more likely he will be recommended, retained, or referred. Discover how easy it is to own USCA (Less than 50¢ a day buys it) and what USCA can do for you. Write for full details.
